

DESCENDANTS OF MIKE & PHOEBE ANCESTRY

Mike was born a slave in 1792 in Abbeville, South Carolina. He died a free man in 1863 in Carlowville, Dallas County, Alabama.

Phoebe was born in 1793 in Abbeville, South Carolina on the plantation of David Thomas Rumph. She died in 1864 in Carlowville, Dallas County, Alabama. Phoebe's mother had been born in West Africa.

Mike and Phoebe were married on Christmas Day 1811. It is believed that they were married on the Rumph plantation in Abbeville, SC.

Children: Mike and Phoebe had eleven (11) children. The male children all took on the Surname of Carmichael - to honor their father, Mike. It is unclear why they chose that name. Could Mike's owner have been a Carmichael?

Eliza was born in 1812. She married Ned Lyde Edwards.

Mike Carmichael was born in 1813. He married Jenny Savage.

Joseph Carmichael was born in 1815. He married Nancy Lyde.

James Carmichael was born in 1817. He married Rachel Newton.

Fanny Carmichael was born in 1818. She married Brister Mosley.

Peter Carmichael was also born in 1818. He married Ellen ?

Isaac Carmichael was born in 1819. He married Polly Lyde.

The first seven (7) children were born in Abbeville, South Carolina.

In 1820, Thomas David Rumph moved his family and his plantation to Dallas County, Carlowville, Alabama. Phoebe was pregnant at the time and came with her seven children to Carlowville. Mike remained in Abbeville, SC working to secure his freedom.

Mike worked for over 4 years to purchase his freedom. He paid $1900. He then walked from Abbeville through Georgia, to Carlowville, Alabama. Mike arrived in the spring of 1825, reuniting with his family and securing work as a driver for Thomas David Rumph.

Patty Carmichael was born in January of 1821, in Carlowville, Alabama. She married Andrew Johnson.

George Carmichael was born in 1826. He married Sarah Ann ?

Daniel Carmichael was born in 1827. He died in his youth.

Peggy Carmichael was born in 1828. She married Isaac ?

These are the initial offspring of Mike and Phoebe.
